

CHILD AND ADOLESCENT PSYCHIATRISTS

IWK Health Centre / Dalhousie University, Halifax, NS

The Department of Psychiatry at Dalhousie University is recruiting a Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist for the Eating Disorders Service. The psychiatrist will provide psychiatric care to outpatients and inpatients, as well as patients in a future day treatment service that is in development.

The Eating Disorders Service is a multi-disciplinary team comprised of a psychiatrist, psychologist, social worker, nurse and dietician, with consultation from the Pediatrics Department. The predominant care model used is Maudsley Family-Based Treatment. Experience treating patients with Eating Disorders is required for this job, but training in the Maudsley method can be provided if the applicant does not have this skill set.

The job includes ample time for teaching and research, as well as an excellent infrastructure to support these academic endeavours. The IWK is an academic tertiary care health centre for children, women and families in the Maritime Provinces. It has a large Child and Adolescent Mental Health and Addictions Program in which the IWK Department of Psychiatry conducts its clinical work. The Division of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry at Dalhousie University is one of the largest academic groups in Canada. The Division provides teaching and research opportunities through its affiliation with the Dalhousie University Faculty of Medicine.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, although Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Dalhousie University is an Employment/Affirmative Action employer. The University encourages applications from qualified Aboriginal people, persons with a disability, racially visible persons and women.

Applicants should send: 1) an electronic copy of their CV and 2) names and contact information of three references who may be contacted at a later date. Please send materials to:
